

In regards to Indiana No call list, it has made my life much more pleasant. I no longer have to receive those irritating calls from telemarketer bastards at the most inconvenient times trying to sell me crap I have will never have any use for in three life times. This issue is best left for states to decide and not cookie cut it into one lump sum policy for everyone in this great nation. Thank you.